Declaration

By signing, you confirm that you are the owner of the above-mentioned entrepreneurial company, that the company has turnover and income-generating activities, or is part of a public or private entrepreneurial environment, and that the information provided about the entrepreneurial company and any entrepreneurial environment is correct.

You solemnly declare:

- that at the time of application you can document relevant employment or entrepreneurial activity, which will commence no later than at the start of your studies
- that you commit to informing the administration of any significant changes, including termination, in the employment/entrepreneurial company during the entire period of study

You are obliged to inform the administration of any significant changes in the employment or entrepreneurial company during the study period. This may include, for example, termination of the business, dismissal, or transition to other employment that means the admission requirements for the programme are no longer fulfilled.

If you do not inform the administration of changes in your employment, the consequence may be that you cannot continue in the programme.

Please note that the administration will obtain documentation at least twice a year to verify that the information you have provided is correct.
